PACIFIC POPULAIRE 1993

April 5, 1993

Dear Participant...

Please excuse our generic introduction, but as there were approximately 350 of you energetic riders out there, we thought we'd simplify things. Wasn't that a great ride?!! But we can't take the credit for it: our volunteers, the elements and you, the riders were the ones who pulled it off. One of the benefits of organizing a ride such as this is to see the participants at various stages of the event. It was really heartening to see so many hardy, happy faces of all ages in the Populaire this year.

And if you thought that was fun ... wait! There's more! As many of you may already know, the Pacific Populaire is an annual kick-off to our official randonneur series. While they may sound daunting, the great thing about these long-distance events is that they build on each other and as you increase your mileage with each successive event you miraculously become a stronger rider. We'd like to see you take the challenge and join us in some of our randonneur events this year.

Many of these rides go through rural, low-traffic, scenic areas in the Lower Mainland, Fraser Valley and upper Washington State regions. It is a great way to explore the little nooks and crannies of our locale that you might otherwise overlook. We will be offering two complete series this year (April - August) in the Lower Mainland, as well as rides in the Kamloops area and Vancouver Island.

The 200 kilometre is the next event in our series and is a prerequisite to subsequent rides (300, 400, 600 and 1000 km). It will take place on Saturday April 17, 1993. Please contact Ian Faris at 464-6595 or Cycling British Columbia at 737-3034 for further information or registration for this event. For more information about the randonneur series, please consult the purple flyer which was enclosed in your end-of-ride package or contact Cycling B.C.

Please find enclosed the results from the Pacific Populaire (and excuse any inaccuracies or oversights on our part). Thanks for coming out to this event and making it such a success. We'll see you down the road!

Sincerely,

The Pacific Populaire Committee
Cycling B.C. Randonneurs
