

~ Heart of Gold ~

Gentle and humble in heart he was.
The mountain so high, to climb, to reach the sky, I will try, I will try The river so cool and refreshing, I think I will rest here awhile For the mountain is so high in the deep blue sky, so beautiful, I will try A man passed me by and he had no shirt,
I gave him mine
And continued on by for I had to climb, so high...
I climbed and I climbed and passed a man with broken boots, I gave him mine I did not feel cold, I felt lighter as I climbed and I passed many people.
I gave them what I could to help them on their journey.
When I reached the summit and felt the warm sun on my face, I felt peace And joy with what I had accomplished.
My heart became golden in that moment.
The journey never ends...

by Allison Voth

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Larry Voth

Born

November 14th, 1947
Saskatoon, SK

Passed Away Peacefully at Home

November 14th, 2015
Langley, B.C.

Service of Remembrance

Saturday November 20th, 2015 at 1:00 p.m.
Henderson's Langley Funeral Home
20786 Fraser Highway, Langley, B.C.

Officiating

Ron Stewart

Following the service, friends are invited to join the family for a reception in the Henderson's tea room

In lieu of flowers, let us continue to remember Larry by donating blood to the Canadian Blood Services or please donate to the Langley Hospice Society

Please join us in remembering Larry Voth by visiting our Memorial at www.hendersonslangleyfunerals.com. Through this site, we invite you to share your thoughts and fond memories with our family

Designed and printed by Henderson's Langley Funeral Home
www.hendersonslangleyfunerals.com

